

Bude Community Cinema
presents

Set in the southern state of Mississippi during the Civil Rights era of the 1960s. 'Skeeter' is white, and a journalist, who decides to write a book from the point of view of two (black) maids known as 'The Help'. A poignant and inspiring story, told with humour.

Thurs 22 March 7.30 pm

Parkhouse Centre, Bude

Doors open 6.30 pm - Bar - Tea/Coffee - Ice creams, etc

Tickets: £5 (Students £2) - from Ark Angel

Bookshop, Bude TIC and on the door.

Or reserve them on 0845 874 0168

www.budecinema.org.uk

Bude Community Cinema is a Registered Charity (No. 1139583)

LOTTERY FUNDED

Bude Community Cinema
presents

Set in the southern state of Mississippi during the Civil Rights era of the 1960s. 'Skeeter' is white, and a journalist, who decides to write a book from the point of view of two (black) maids known as 'The Help'. A poignant and inspiring story, told with humour.

Thurs 22 March 7.30 pm

Parkhouse Centre, Bude

Doors open 6.30 pm - Bar - Tea/Coffee - Ice creams, etc

Tickets: £5 (Students £2) - from Ark Angel

Bookshop, Bude TIC and on the door.

Or reserve them on 0845 874 0168

www.budecinema.org.uk

Bude Community Cinema is a Registered Charity (No. 1139583)

LOTTERY FUNDED